VERBAL AUCTION ITEMS

V001 Walking Tour of Boston: Murder, Martyrs & Mystics

Walk from Beacon Hill, across Boston Common and into the Bay Village on this fascinating guided tour of Bostonians behaving badly. Meet the medium who brought Houdini to Boston, the Quaker hanged for her faith, and the duelist who died on the Common

- See the mass grave of 900 British soldiers
- Hear about the nightclub conflagration that changed fire laws across the country.
- Find out what Edgar Allan Poe thought about Boston and why he called it Frogpondium

Take a shadowy walk with a trained Boston By Foot guide through the City on a Hill's less shining history and a few of its neighborhoods.

We go uphill and down on a strenuous route that's a workout for the history enthusiast. Wear comfortable walking shoes and be prepared to keep up. The tour moves on and you really don't want to be left behind because something may be lurking in the shadows.
